This panel features several College of Liberal Arts faculty members who have been successful in securing funding from federal agencies and foundations that fund the humanities and the arts. They share their tips and advice for how they were able to secure grants and fellowships to support their scholarship and creative activity. The sponsored research administration staff, who work with humanities and arts faculty, will be on hand as well. There will also be a giveaway of the book How to Get Grant Money in the Humanities and Social Sciences by Raphael Brewster Folsom.

Faculty Panelists:

Dr. Sandrine Sanos, Professor of Modern European History, funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities (both the summer stipend and year-long fellowship)

Dr. Claudia Rueda, Assistant Professor of History, funded by the Mellon Foundation/Woodrow Wilson Fellowship, Humanities Texas

Jennifer Garza-Cuen, Assistant Professor of Photography, funded by the John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation, Robert Rauschenberg Foundation
